CALL FOR ENTRY

airdgallery.org

Marcdonald Block, 900 Bay Street (at Wellesley), Toronto, ON, Canada M7A 1C2 | Gallery Hours: Monday to Friday, 10 am - 6 pm

ABOUT THE EXHIBITION

This 19th annual juried exhibition showcases drawings by contemporary Canadian artists. For this exhibition, a drawing is defined as an art form used to either draft ideas that are further developed in other media or to create a finished work of art. This broad definition is intended to open the exhibition to entries reflecting a wide variety of contemporary drawing techniques and practices.

HOW TO ENTER

- Artists may submit images of up to two works. All entries must be submitted in digital jpg format. Detail images can be submitted. Each jpeg must be no more than 1.5 MB in size, and labeled as follows: Last Name, First Name, Title, Size (Height x Width), Date.jpg (ie: Smith, John, Its a Drawing, 8.5 x 11 cm, 2014.jpg).
- Submit only original drawings created by the entrant and not previously shown at the John B. Aird Gallery.
- There are no size limitations. Accepted works must be framed (exceptions will be made for oversize work), fitted with hanging devices, and clearly labeled on the back with the name of the artist, title, medium, size, and date of production.
- The Gallery Director can choose not to hang any work which does not conform to entry rules or was not clearly represented on the submission.
- UPLOAD ENTRY MATERIALS via our web site. Detailed instructions on how to do this are outlined on the site at: www.airdgallery.org (go to the “Open Calls & Submissions” page). Please note that you must download the entry form, fill it out and upload it with your images and bio in a compressed zip folder. To use this option you must also be able to pay the $40 entry fee via on-line banking using an Interac e-transfer. WHEN USING INTERACT TRANSFER USE THE TITLE OF THE SHOW: DRAWING 2018 as your PASSWORD or Mail/hand-deliver your entry with jpegs on a CD to: John B. Aird Gallery 900 Bay Street, Macdonald Block, Toronto, ON M7A 1C2.

ENTRY DEADLINE

Monday, January 15, 2018 by midnight.

ABOUT THE JOHN B. AIRD GALLERY

The John B. Aird Gallery, www.airdgallery.org, commonly referred to as “The Aird”, is an independent, not-for-profit, charitable public gallery that showcase contemporary visual artists and strives to build awareness and enjoyment of the arts while creating an accessible space (free admission) for excellence in the visual arts. It was named in honour of the 23rd Lieutenant Governor of Ontario (1980-1985), John Black Aird, because of his support for excellence in the visual arts. The Aird provides an inviting space for both emerging and seasoned artists, exhibiting up to 500 artists per year. Formerly the Macdonald Gallery, the Aird reopened in May of 1985 as a result of an agreement between the Government of Ontario and six visual arts organizations, namely: Canadian Society of Painters in Water Colour, Ontario Crafts Council, Ontario Society of Artists, Royal Canadian Academy of Arts, Society of Canadian Artists, and Sculptors Society of Canada. The mission of the Gallery is to foster awareness and enjoyment of artworks by contemporary professional artists. The Gallery endeavors to recognize, encourage and nurture excellence in the visual arts.
